

Shayla Funk Associate

Ms. Funk is an emerging leader in California's energy and climate space having served in the prestigious California Executive Fellowship Program and as an analyst in the Executive Office of the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC).

Before joining Caliber, Ms. Funk served as a Regulatory Analyst in the Safety Policy Division at the CPUC. In this role, she led a rulemaking to further develop a risk-based decision-making framework for gas and electric utilities. She directed public meetings, wrote policy recommendations and guided decision-makers through recommendations for utility risk policies. Prior to her position in the Safety Policy Division, Ms. Funk served as an Executive Fellow and a Regulatory Analyst in the CPUC's Executive Division.

Ms. Funk holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Redlands in Public Policy and Environmental Science and is a candidate at the University of California, Berkeley, Haas School of Business.

